over-partitioning: One cell (i.e., one color in the ground truth annotation) receives two (or more) colors under-partitioning: Two ground-truth cells (i.e., colors) receive the same color mis-partitioning: One color partially overlaps with two cells.