Figure S2. Anxiety levels were associated with several bacteria at the level of phyla, class, order, and family. Color scheme of data points follows the format as in Figure 1 (ND = blue, ND + exercise = green, HFD = red, and HFD + exercise in orange). Linear regression analysis for individual mice was performed with $R^2$ values indicating goodness of fit and uncorrected $p$ values for slope calculated by F test.