The graph shows the pair correlation function $g(s)$ as a function of distance $s$ (bp). The correlation is compared between genes (dashed line) and operons (solid line). The correlation peaks at a distance of approximately 2000 bp and then levels off.