Figure 2. Timeline of initiation of mortality surveillance systems by MSF

March 2003
Refugees from Darfur began to enter Eastern Chad

January 2004
Farchana camp officially opened and MSF began programme

February 2006
Inter-ethnic violence began in Chad resulting in internal displacement of Chadians in Goz Beida region

June 2007
MSF Community-Based Mortality Surveillance initiated in Ade and Korti

May 2004
Breidjing camp officially opened, MSF began programme and initiated Community-Based Mortality Surveillance in Breidjing camp

June 2004
MSF Community-Based Mortality Surveillance System initiated in Farchana camp

July 2007
MSF Community-Based Mortality Surveillance initiated in Gasire