Figure 1. The histology from the primary ovarian sex cord-stromal type tumor, which was difficult to classify. In the absence of unequivocal Reinke crystals, the tumor was classified as a luteinized thecoma. Magnification x200.