Figure 2. A Haller index of 2.5 was obtained by dividing the internal transverse distance of the thorax by the sternal-vertebral distance at the most depressed segment of the deformity. (a) CT images (b-d) X-ray images.