The graph shows the values of $\lambda$ for different tasks. Each bar represents the mean value with error bars indicating the standard deviation. The x-axis represents the task number, and the y-axis represents the value of $\lambda$. The tasks are labeled as 1, 2, 3, 4, and 5.