The figure illustrates the content (mmol/g) of weak acid groups and sulfonic groups across different conditions: RM, Neutral, Acidic, Alkaline, and Ethanol. The content of weak acid groups shows an increase from RM to Ethanol, while the sulfonic group content remains relatively constant. The data is represented with error bars to indicate variability.