Appendix 1: Study questionnaire

A. Questions for GPs.

1. Gender: ☐ Male ☐ female

2. Age: _ _ _ _ _ _

3. For how long have you been a GP? _ _ _ _ _ _

4. Practice environment
   ☐ Urban
   ☐ Semi-rural ☐ Rural

5. Who do you believe is responsible for health information?

   -----------------------------------------------------
   -----------------------------------------------------
   -----------------------------------------------------
   -----------------------------------------------------
   -----------------------------------------------------
   -----------------------------------------------------
   -----------------------------------------------------
   -----------------------------------------------------
   -----------------------------------------------------
   -----------------------------------------------------

6. How would you assess the growing demand for health information over the last 10 years?

   -----------------------------------------------------
7. What do you think are the most appropriate media to disseminate health information?
(TV, Radio, Posters, brochures, newspapers, Internet, etc.)

8. What functions do you assign to your waiting room?
9. How often do you receive posters and/or health information brochures?

☐ Daily

☐ Several times a week

☐ More than once a month

☐ Once a month

☐ Less than once a month

10. Overall, do you consider these posters and/or brochures to be adapted to the patient?

☐ Yes

☐ Rather yes

☐ Rather not

☐ No, not at all

☐ Neither yes nor no
11. What do you do when you receive posters and/or brochures?

☐ You throw them away.

☐ You distribute them after having read them quickly.

☐ You read them carefully and only distribute those that you consider to be relevant.

☐ Other: ____________________________

12. If you distribute them, why?

____________________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________________

13. If you do not distribute them, why?

____________________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________________
14. Have you ever specifically ordered posters and/or brochures?

☐ Never

☐ Rarely

☐ Sometimes

☐ Often

15. If you have ordered posters and/or brochures, from which institution?

16. Would you say that patients use the brochures made available to them?

17. Do patients talk with you about prevention issues after reading brochures in your waiting room?

☐ Yes  ☐ No
17.1. If yes, would you say this happens:

☐ Very occasionally

☐ Sometimes

☐ Often

18. Do you distribute educational video messages in your waiting room?

☐ Yes  ☐ No

19. What do you think of the dissemination of audiovisual messages for health education?

__________________________________________

__________________________________________

__________________________________________

__________________________________________

__________________________________________

__________________________________________

__________________________________________

__________________________________________
B. Waiting room documents

1) Posters

Number: ________________

Themes: ________________________________________________________

Source: ________________________________________________________

2) Brochures

Number: ________________

Themes: ________________________________________________________

Source: ________________________________________________________