Figure 2: Spleen photomicrograph with CD-20 immunohistochemical stain.

The image on the left represents the case, matched controls are on the right. B lymphocytes are present and abnormally localized in the periarteriolar lymphatic sheath.