The graphs show the percentage of infection at different stages and for different species of Leishmania. Infection levels are categorized as light, moderate, and heavy. The species include L. major and L. turanica. The data is presented for days 2, 5, 9, and 12.