Figure 5a. Scatter plots show correlation between the arch index and radiographic measures for each foot posture group.

Figure 5b. Scatter plots show correlation between the normalised navicular height and radiographic measures for each foot posture group.