Fig 2: A schematic view of the lag screw sliding in the Gamma Nail. If the set screw was not tightened (as showed in A), after postoperative load bearing, the sliding of the lag screw (blue arrow) will allow fracture site impaction (B). If the set screw is tightened (C) no sliding will occur (D).