The graph shows the mean values over time for different treatments: Secondary Surgery, Reconstructive surgery, Radiotherapy, and Chemotherapy. The y-axis represents the mean values, while the x-axis represents time. Each treatment is represented by a different line and color, indicating how their mean values change over the five time points.