Length of stay vs. social risk.
Staying <5 days and >5 days were compared between “at social risk” and “not at social risk” patients: no statistical difference was evident between the two groups. (P = 0.67)