Figure 2

This figure shows the systolic pressure (in mm Hg) over weeks for four different groups: CON, PA, HFHC, and HFHC+PA. The graph indicates a gradual increase in systolic pressure over time for all groups, with CON showing the least increase and HFHC+PA showing the most increase. The asterisk (*) and dagger (†) symbols indicate statistically significant differences compared to the CON group at specific time points.