Figure 3

The scatter plot shows the relationship between CVP (mmHg) and FIVP (mmHg). The data points are differentiated by IAP: filled circles for IAP < 14 mmHg and open circles for IAP ≥ 14 mmHg. There is a positive correlation between CVP and FIVP, with the majority of data points clustering along the diagonal line, indicating that as one parameter increases, the other also tends to increase.