The graph illustrates the percentage of ICU charge for various charge categories, comparing Influenza and Non-Influenza charges.

- Room/Board shows a higher percentage for Influenza, reaching nearly 29% compared to Non-Influenza at around 9%.
- Pharmacy also shows a higher percentage for Influenza at about 24% versus 14% for Non-Influenza.
- Supplies has a much higher percentage for Influenza at 22% compared to Non-Influenza at 3%.
- Laboratory shows a higher percentage for Influenza at 15% compared to Non-Influenza at 1%.
- Radiology has a significant difference with 25% for Influenza and 2% for Non-Influenza.
- Surgical shows a higher percentage for Influenza at 13% compared to Non-Influenza at 3%.
- Blood Products has a higher percentage for Influenza at 12% compared to Non-Influenza at 3%.
- Respiratory Services shows a higher percentage for Influenza at 10% compared to Non-Influenza at 2%.
- Dialysis has a higher percentage for Influenza at 11% compared to Non-Influenza at 2%.
- Miscellaneous has a higher percentage for Influenza at 10% compared to Non-Influenza at 2%.

Overall, the graph highlights the significant difference in percentage of ICU charge between Influenza and Non-Influenza cases across various charge categories.