Percentage of EU population that has ever lived in:
- different region
- another EU country
- another non-EU country

Percentage of population lives in a different state from where they were born (United States) has ever lived in a different region or country (European Union)