The decision to adopt SDD requires consensus between my colleagues.

The decision to adopt SDD requires a review and appraisal of the current best evidence.

Part of the decision to adopt SDD requires agreement about which patients will receive it.

There are no national guidelines about SDD.

The skills required to administer SDD fall within the competencies of our ICU nursing staff.

There are conflicting opinions on antibiotic use among MM/ID Physicians and ICU physicians.