discrimination ratio = cost function value for correct gene / cost function value for average genes fraction of gaps with certain discrimination ratio average rank of correct genes within the bin average 1st-layer phylogenetic correlation for gaps cumulative fraction of gaps with average 1st-layer phylogenetic correlation greater than a certain value fraction of correctly predicted genes within the top 50