Figure 2: Accuracy of offset p-values. Each figure plots the computed offset p-value as a function of the empirical (rank-based) p-value from searching shuffled query motifs against shuffled target motifs. The central line corresponds $y = x$, while the two adjacent dotted lines correspond to $y = 0.5x$ and $y = 2x$. Each panel contains p-values computed using a different column similarity function.