Figure S4: Neighbor-Joining tree based on Ilumina Porcine 60K Bead Chip (Ramos et. al. 2009). Individuals highlighted in red correspond to whole-genome samples used in this study. This tree demonstrate that each sample used in this study is clustering with other relatives from the same population / species, and should therefore be representative of their respective population / species.