UML sequence diagram representing the implementation details of the process of creating the list of pathways from KEGG and mapping microarray data onto them.