Figure S2. Average linkage disequilibrium coefficient ($r^2$) values are plotted against intermarker distance for all autosomal chromosomes.

The plot on the right upper corner is the zoomed area of the bigger plot. The x-axis represents the distance between SNPs (kb) and the y-axis represents $r^2$ between SNPs.