Additional File 7. Aligned translations of members of a putative novel gene family that contribute a significant proportion of expression in the house spider venom gland. The six conserved cysteine residues in members of this family are highlighted in yellow. The pattern of expression bias is indicated by colored ovals to the left of the sequence label: green=venom gland biased (=>10 fold), yellow=silk gland biased (=>10 fold).