CV. COVERSCREEN

Logic
■ COVERSCREEN section is answered by one panel member in the household.
■ Any panel member who has moved out or set up a separate household (distinguished in GPMS) is given a new household ID to indicate that fact.
■ If a panel member has died, skip COVERSCREEN section and conduct an exit interview with a proxy respondent.

CV001. We conduct the 4th Wave of the KLoSA. Thank you very much for your co-operation in this survey. You will be asked about the changes since the previous interview.

< Notes on unfolding bracket questions >

- When R says “don’t know” or “refuse to answer” to financial questions (i.e., family transfer, health care expenditure, income, and assets, R will be asked “unfolding bracket questions.”
- In all unfolding bracket questions, a threshold is presented, and R is asked whether the amount is “less than,” “about equal to,” or “more than” the threshold.
- There are 5 thresholds for each set of unfolding questions: thresholds 1, 2, 3, 4, and 5, in increasing order.
- R is asked a maximum of 3 questions, presented in the following 3 scenarios.
- R is randomly assigned to 1 of these 3 scenarios.

- By financial help we mean giving money, helping pay bills, or covering specific types of costs such as those for medical care or insurance, schooling, down payment for a home, rent, etc., but not counting any shared housing or shared food. The financial help can be considered support, a gift or a loan.
- Regular monetary transfer refers to the case in which you received monetary transfers regularly in a certain time interval (e.g. each month, every two months), such as monthly allowances.
- Occasional monetary transfer refers to the case in which you received monetary transfers without any regularity, such as paying for medical bills or schooling and occasional allowances.
- Monetary transfers include receiving cash as well as bills paid for your behalf. For example, your family member pays for your medical bills, insurance, tuition and so on.
- Non-monetary transfer refers to gifts and goods received

POINT
- By financial help we mean giving money, helping pay bills, or covering specific types of costs, such as those for medical care or insurance, schooling, down payment for a home, rent, etc..
but not counting any shared housing or shared food. The financial help can be considered support, a gift or a loan.

- Regular monetary transfer refers to the case in which you received monetary transfers regularly in a certain time interval (e.g. each month, every two months), such as monthly allowances.
- Occasional monetary transfer refers to the case in which you received monetary transfers without any regularity, such as paying for medical bills or schooling and occasional allowances.
- Monetary transfers include receiving cash as well as bills paid for your behalf. For example, your family member pays for your medical bills, insurance, tuition and so on.
- Non-monetary transfer refers to gifts and goods received.

■ If C117=⑤, then go to C120.

C120. When you were smoking the most, how many cigarettes or packs did you usually smoke in a day?
[IWER: One pack is 20 cigarettes. For example, mark 30 for one and a half packs.]

______cigarettes / days [range:1~200]

Logic
■ If (R was identified as a smoker in the previous interview and C116=⑤) or C117=⑤, then go to C121.
C121. When did you stop smoking? (unit: year and month combined into 6 digits)
[IWER: Calculate the year and month after hearing R’s response. For example, enter 201203 if R quit smoking in March 2012.]

[200600~201211] → Go to C122

Logic
■ If R answered in the previous interview that he/she drank and C122=1, then go to C125.
■ If R answered in the previous interview that he/she did not drink and C122=1, then go to C124.
■ If R answered in the previous interview that he/she drank and C122=5, then go to C123.
■ If R answered in the previous interview that he/she did not drink and C122=5, then go to C141.

C122. Do you sometimes or often drink any alcoholic beverages, such as beer, wine, or liquor?
1 Yes → Go to C124 (Non-drinker(2010)) or C125(Drinker(2010))
5 No → Go to C123 (Drinker(2010)) or C141(Non-drinker(2010))

Logic
■ If R answered in the previous interview that he/she drank and C122=5, then go to C123.

C123. When did you quit drinking? (unit: year and month combined into 6 digits)
[IWER: Calculate the year and month after hearing R’s response. For example, enter 201203 if R quit smoking in March 2012.]

[200600~201211] → Go to C141

Logic
■ If R answered in the previous interview that he/she did not drink and C122=1, then go to C124.

C124. When did you start drinking? (unit: year and month combined into 6 digits)
[IWER: Calculate the year and month after hearing R’s response. For example, enter 201203 if R started drinking in March 2012.]

[200600~201211]
C125. Now, I am going to ask you how often and how much you drank during the past one year. Please answer how often you drank per month, and how much you drank at a time on average. I will repeat the questions for different types of alcoholic beverages.

① Never → Go to section C4.
② A few times → Go to section C4.
③ Most or all of the time → Go to section C4.
④ The section was done by a proxy respondent.
C350. What is the proxy’s relationship to R? If unknown, please ask the proxy. What is your relationship to R?

1. Spouse
2. Mother
3. Father
4. Mother-in-law
5. Father-in-law
6. Brother/sister
8. Son/daughter
9. Son-in-law/daughter-in-law

C414. [IWER: Pointing to item #2] What is this?
[IWER: If R calls a watch “clock”, the answer is considered correct.]
① Correct
⑤ Incorrect

C415. Now you have to exactly repeat what I say. Are you ready? Please listen carefully.
[IWER: ① Tidy up the surroundings. ② Read the sentences aloud at a slow and steady pace. ③ Mark 'Incorrect' if the pronunciation is unclear, except when R has no teeth or problems in oral structure. In principle, no point should be given if R has failed on the first try but succeeded on the second try. However, if R is deemed to have been distracted on the first try, the IWER may get him/her to pay attention and repeat the question. Mark 'Correct' if the right answer is given.]
① Correct
⑤ Incorrect

C416. [IWER: holds one A4 paper.] Now, listen carefully and follow my directions. Are you ready? When I give you a piece of paper, please turn it over, fold it in half, and give it back to me.
[IWER:
① Tidy up the surroundings (especially the front) so it doesn't interfere with R.
② Do not repeat the question in the middle of the process.
③ Do not give out the paper in advance.
④ Directions can be repeated if R seems unable to understand the directions or if R asks you to repeat the directions. In this case, the paper given out should be collected and the process should start over.]
① One of the turning / folding / returning actions is completed successfully
② Two of the turning / folding / returning actions are completed successfully
③ All of the turning / folding / returning actions are completed successfully
⑤ None of the turning / folding / returning actions is completed successfully
C417. [IWER: Make sure R doesn’t see the test paper with “close your eyes” written on it before asking the question. Make sure that someone does not read the sentence to R.] I will show you a sentence. Please read the sentence aloud and act it out.

1. R completed only one task (either reading or action of closing eyes)
2. R did both tasks
3. R did not complete any task

C418. [IWER: Give R a pen and point to the blank part of the paper.] Please write one sentence about how you’re feeling today or about today’s weather.

1. Wrote a sentence
2. Couldn’t write a sentence

C419. [IWER: Show the picture of two pentagons overlapped.] Do you see this picture? Please draw that picture on this paper.

1. Drew the picture

● Insurance (Term Life, Whole Life, Annuity)

Logic

- If F122=1, R should answer that he/she has at least one insurance policy falling under any of the three types of insurance in F123, F127 and F132.

F122. I am going to ask you about insurance. Except the health-related coverage insurance you have talked about earlier, which is intended to insure you against illnesses or accidents, do you have any saving insurance whose aim is to accrue savings and pensions? Saving insurance includes term life insurance, whole life insurance, and annuity insurance.

* POINT*

- Term Life Insurance: A type of life insurance which covers the subscriber for a limited period of time.
- Whole Life Insurance: A type of life insurance which covers the subscriber until his/her death rather than for a limited period of time.
- Annuity Insurance: A type of life insurance in which the subscriber is paid a certain amount each year until his/her death or for a certain period of time.

① Yes
⑤ No → Go to F138
F123. How many term life insurance policies do you have? Term life insurance refers to life insurance which covers the subscriber for a limited period of time.

[IWER: Mark 0 if R has no term life insurance.]
