Algorithm: Contra-indications to vaginal delivery

Contra-indications to vaginal delivery

Absolute contra-indications:
- Transverse presentation, front, face in mento-posterior
- Twin pregnancy with T1 position other than cephalic
- Placenta praevia recovering/Tumor praevia
- Pelvis generally narrowed
- Cure of uterine malformation
- History of cure of fistula and prolapse
- Two or more previous caesarean section
- History of uterine rupture
- Breech presentation on scarred uterus
- Breech presentation with premature rupture of membranes

Relative contra-indications:
- Limited or asymmetric pelvis
- HIV
- Vulvo-vaginal Condyloma
- Macrosomia
- Diaphragme/ Vaginal synechia

Patient informed during antenatal care
Decision of caesarean section

- Yes
- No

Diagnosis before labor
Diagnosis during labor

- Planned caesarean section
- Emergency caesarean section

- Emergency caesarean section within 30 minutes

- Planned caesarean section
- Trial of labor / Cephalopelvic confrontation
- Monitoring

Source: QUARISMA trial (Nils Chaillet) and opinions of the group of experts