Welcome to this survey on communication at RDH

Thank you for participating!
This should take less than 5 minutes.
Your responses will help inform strategies for improving inter-cultural communication at Royal Darwin Hospital.

Collated survey responses will be circulated back to all staff who have received the invitation to participate.

Dr Anna Ralph
on behalf of the Communicate study investigators
Staff Specialist in Infectious Diseases and General Medicine, Royal Darwin Hospital
Senior Research Fellow, Global and Tropical Health, Menzies School of Health Research

* 1. What is your current role at Royal Darwin Hospital?

* 2. How long in total have you worked at RDH, or at other hospital(s) with a high proportion of Australian Indigenous clients?

* 3. Did you receive any formal orientation when you commenced employment at RDH? This means time set aside from clinical duties to be inducted about hospital procedures.

* 4. Have you participated in cultural competency training at RDH either during orientation (if you received orientation), or at any time during your employment so far?

5. If yes, how satisfied were you with the cultural competency component of your orientation?
