Routes for spread of infectious diseases between cattle

Important ways disease can spread FROM cattle:
- infected wounds
- vaginal discharge
- saliva
- milk
- dung

Important ways disease can spread TO cattle:
- skin
- mating
- breathing air
- mouth