Figure S2. Representative flow cytometry plots demonstrating that neutralizing circulating sMIC with an monoclonal antibody reduces the population of MDSC in the spleen and tumor infiltrates (TILs). Data represents at least 5 animals in the control or anti-sMIC treated group.