Supplemental Figure 12: Schematic of major findings

A) Metastatic breast cancer cells secrete G-CSF, driving a systemic expansion of MDSCs and increased lung metastatic burden.

B) Residual MDSCs continue to support lung metastatic colonization following surgical resection of orthotopic breast cancer tumors.

C) Combination of surgical resection and low-dose gemcitabine treatment depletes pulmonary MDSCs and decreases lung metastatic burden.