Figure 13: Impact of correlation between bite risk and adherence to MDA in low setting. Probability of elimination after five years for an annual MDA programme at 65% coverage in a low endemic setting where there is either a negative, none or positive correlation between the bite-risk of an individual and their tendency to comply with an MDA programme. The underlying endemicity considered here is low.