Figure 14: Impact of correlation between bite risk and adherence to MDA in high setting. Probability of elimination after five years for an annual MDA programme at 65% coverage in a high endemic setting, where there is either a negative, no or positive correlation between the bite-risk of an individual and their tendency to comply with an MDA programme. Here the underlying endemicity is high.