Additional Figure 1. Correlation of the (THF+5αTHF)/THE ratio of urinary glucocorticoid metabolites measured in 24 hour urine collections and in mid-morning spot urine samples of the same healthy individuals (n=6). Correlation coefficient (r) and the significance of the correlation (p value) were calculated using Pearson correlation. A p value <0.05 was considered statistically significant.