The diagram shows the distribution of picoeukaryotes and prokaryotes across different latitudes and longitudes. The LCBD (p<0.05) indicates a significant difference in abundance between picoeukaryotes and prokaryotes. The data points are color-coded to represent the two groups, with picoeukaryotes shown in red and prokaryotes in green.