The document contains scatter plots and heatmaps showing ordination and heatmap of discriminating genera. The plots compare different treatments and conditions, possibly related to microbiome analysis. Annotations indicate various metrics such as bioenergetics, heatmaps, and scatter plots for different treatments and conditions.