Title: Citywide trauma experience in Mwanza, Tanzania: A need for urgent intervention

Version: 3 Date: 4 October 2013

Reviewer: Uli Schmucker

Reviewer's report:

The authors present important data on the broad spectrum of injury in a resource limited setting. I suggest publication of the manuscript although not all comments of my review have been fully addressed in the revised manuscript. The authors are encouraged to continue their hospital based injury monitoring and report more detailed data (see review) in the future. Anyway, the manuscript may assist other researchers in designing own investigations in resource limited settings.

The Journal of Trauma management and outcomes is advised to consider the revised manuscript for the upcoming "Decade of Action for Road Safety 2011-2020 Paper Series".

Level of interest: An article of importance in its field
