Title: The effect of cigarette smoking on washout time of sevoflurane anesthesia

Version: 2 Date: 24 April 2010

Reviewer: Toby Weingarten

Reviewer’s report:

You have addressed all my comments and revised the manuscript accordingly. However, some editorial effort should be required to improve the English of the text. For example, "till" is not good English, it should be "untill". Also avoid the use of the apostrophe (') to omit letters (do not write it as 'till either). Usually, avoid the apostrophe to mark the possessive (i.e., patients' MAC) in technical writing as well. Some of your sentence structure is also not good English and needs minor revisions. I trust that the journal editorial staff can help address these errors in syntax.

Sincerely yours,
Toby Weingarten
