Title: Assessing quality of life in a randomized clinical trial: Correcting for missing data

Version: 2 Date: 24 March 2009

Reviewer: Robin Henderson

Reviewer’s report:

I am happy with the revision of the paper. I still think it is better to say something like "guaranteed 2 year survival" rather than "immortal cohort" but this is a minor point only.

Level of interest: An article of importance in its field

Quality of written English: Acceptable

Statistical review: Yes, and I have assessed the statistics in my report.
