Dear Editor, dear Natalie Pafitis,

Please find attached our revised paper (version 5) ‘Does burnout among doctors affect their involvement in patients’ mental health problems? A study of videotaped consultations’, which we would like to resubmit for publication. We made the requested changes and hope that everything is OK now. Otherwise, don’t hesitate to contact us for further corrections.

In anticipation of your reaction,
with kind regards,

Else M. Zantinge
