Reviewer's report

Title: The Effect of Illustrations on Patient Comprehension of Medication Instruction Labels

Version: 2  Date: 24 May 2005

Reviewer: J. F. Arocha

Reviewer's report:

General

The paper has been adequately modified with respect to the first version. The authors have attended to all the points made in the previous review.

=================================================================================================

Major Compulsory Revisions (that the author must respond to before a decision on publication can be reached).

The authors have addressed all the major questions raised in the first review. I believe their answers are adequate.

=================================================================================================

Minor Essential Revisions (such as missing labels on figures, or the wrong use of a term, which the author can be trusted to correct).

All minor points have been dealt with to my satisfaction.

=================================================================================================

Discretionary Revisions (which the author can choose to ignore).

What next?: Accept without revision

Level of interest: An article whose findings are important to those with closely related research interests

Quality of written English: Acceptable

Statistical review: No
