Reviewer's report:

General
I have re-reviewed the article entitled Original article: Association between skin diseases and severe bacterial infections in children: case-control study. I think that the authors have answered my points sufficiently well to allow the manuscript to be published.

Major Compulsory Revisions (that the author must respond to before a decision on publication can be reached)

Minor Essential Revisions (such as missing labels on figures, or the wrong use of a term, which the author can be trusted to correct)

Discretionary Revisions (which the author can choose to ignore)

What next?: Accept without revision
