Reviewer's report

Title: Four novel mutations in the lactase gene (LCT) underlying congenital lactase deficiency (CLD)

Version: 3 Date: 18 November 2008

Reviewer: Songbin Fu

Reviewer's report:

The manuscript had been improved according my comments, there is only a little mistake in the manuscript, such as the gene name “LCT” should be italic.

Level of interest: An article whose findings are important to those with closely related research interests

Quality of written English: Needs some language corrections before being published

Statistical review: No, the manuscript does not need to be seen by a statistician.
