Title: Timeliness of contact tracing among flight passengers for influenza A/H1N1 2009

Version: 2 Date: 4 August 2011

Reviewer: Peter Leggat

Reviewer's report:

Minor revisions

Page 3: need to define abbreviations at first reference, e.g. ECDC, PEP, etc
Check for errors, e.g. table 1 table needs translation to English,

References are inconsistent for journal style. Are there other travel medicine style references—there is no mention of references from this body of references.

Level of interest: An article whose findings are important to those with closely related research interests

Quality of written English: Needs some language corrections before being published

Statistical review: No, the manuscript does not need to be seen by a statistician.
