Reviewer's report:

TCF7L2 Gene Polymorphisms do not Predict Susceptibility to Diabetes in Tropical Calcific Pancreatitis

Dr. Mahurkar and colleagues have adapted the manuscript according the comments made by the reviewers. This paper is sound, is logically structured and flows naturally. Moreover the key references to TCP are cited in this study. I have no further comments to make and advice the EB of BMC Genetics to go forward and publish this important piece of study.
