Reviewer's report:

Issues raised by me in the previous version have been addressed appropriately. The manuscript may be accepted after the following minor issues have been resolved.
1. The English language needs to be improved.
2. Table 4- authors have forgotten to write the variable in the multivariate model.

Level of interest: An article of importance in its field

Quality of written English: Needs some language corrections before being published

Statistical review: No, the manuscript does not need to be seen by a statistician.
