Title: The Effect of Metformin and Thiazolidinedione use on Lung Cancer in Diabetics

Version: 3 Date: 28 July 2012

Reviewer: Douglas Arenberg

Reviewer’s report:

I appreciate the additional work done by the authors to respond to my initial critique. While certainly not definitive, these findings remain provocative, and in particular worthy of further prospective analysis. I think the paper contains important data and seems well done from a statistical point of view (though I am not a biostatistician). The only additional improvement I suggest is that figure 1 should use far larger print and
