Reviewer’s report

Title: Effect of low frequency magnetic fields on melanoma: tumor inhibition and immune activation

Version: 3 Date: 29 August 2013

Reviewer: Robert M Lafrenie

Reviewer’s report:

The response from the authors has answered the majority of my questions satisfactorially. The manuscript could still use some editing for English grammar.

Level of interest: An article of importance in its field

Quality of written English: Needs some language corrections before being published

Statistical review: No, the manuscript does not need to be seen by a statistician.
