Title: Prognostic factors for disease-specific survival in 108 patients with Hurthle cell thyroid carcinoma: a single-institution experience

Version: 1 Date: 3 July 2014

Reviewer: Mikhail Vaysberg

Reviewer's report:

The manuscript is well-written and the analysis is adequate with the available data. The data reflects the conclusion and is supported by previous studies. The limitations of the paper are well described and understood. The writing is clear and acceptable. The methods are well defined. The quoted papers are well analyzed and used appropriately. The title and abstract accurately reflect the substance of the paper. The discussion and conclusion are well balanced.
